

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES

Corporal J. Pierson of company C, who had his foot crushed, is out and around and will report for duty tomorrow.

Private Albert Neimoyer of company B has been appointed drummer in his company.

Company A is still gaining recruits, one more being added last week in the person of Charles E. Peterson.

The battalion non-commissioned officers' school was held last week in company A's club room, the major being the instructor.

A committee from the board of examiners, consisting of Major Lund and Captain Alford, has been holding forth at the armory nearly all week in selecting questions to be put to the officers who are to be examined.

Musician Harvey Hardy of company A, who has been absent in the southern part of the state, reported for duty last week.

Sergeant Frederick C. Dust of company C has been appointed first sergeant of his company.

Battalion drill will be held next Wednesday night, and will be held outdoors hereafter, weather permitting.

Owing to the very small attendance of the members of company B Friday night, the special drill was called off.

Company drill was held last Wednesday night by companies B and C. Second Lieutenant Lund was in command of B, while Captain Summers gave company C its first introduction to platoon drill.

Musician Charles Ackerman of company A, who has been on an extended furlough in California, is expected home the last of this week.

The signal corps was rigidly inspected last Thursday night by Captain J. A. Greenwald and his assistants, Tobias and Scott. After inspection a short signal drill was held.

Ex-Sergeant James Noble, formerly of company C, has made application for enlistment in company A.

Owing to a misunderstanding as to the change of drill nights, company A had a small attendance at drill Monday night.

Instructions in the manual of arms by Captain Gilbert was the routine.

Inspector General John D. Ford completed his report last week and submitted the same, with numerous suggestions and comments, to general headquarters.

Once more an organization of baseball fans make the lawn at the armory look sick. Daily practice is now in vogue. A crack nine will be chosen from the different companies next Wednesday night, and challenges will be issued forthwith.

Sergeant Fred R. Griffiths of the signal corps will be discharged the coming week for the "good of the service."

The Home Circle will meet at Miss Reche's tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp. An entertainment will be given and refreshments will be served.

Company's B bicycle club, consisting of four members, met at the armory on Friday night, and instead of drilling amused themselves by a spin around the hall until the janitor relieved the circus by turning off the light.

The following named men of company D received their discharge last week: Scott Bryan, Edwin Sessions and J. H. Neville. Several applications for enlistment were received also.

The signal corps will have two different parties out today for heliograph practice, weather permitting. The first will leave at 8:30 and proceed up City creek, commanded by Lieutenant Tobias. The second will leave at 1 p. m., taking the same route.

The Officers' association will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting tomorrow at the armory at 8 p. m. sharp. Major H. M. H. Lund has been detailed to present to the meeting a paper on the various state militias, as compared with Utah's.

Captain Levi S. Heywood and Lieutenant W. H. Riley of company E at Bountiful were in the city yesterday in connection with affairs of their company.

First Lieutenant A. P. Goodmansen of company B has been on the sick list for the past week with muscular rheumatism, and is unable to attend either work or drill.

Hereafter company B will hold a school every Friday night instead of drill, for the purpose of educating members as to the duties of warrant officers.

An order was issued yesterday to all officers of the staff and line calling attention to the fact that the 30th of this month is a national holiday, and an occasion for honoring the nation's dead. There will therefore be an inspection and parade on that day of the organizations at their respective stations, and as far as practicable in conjunction with the ceremonies to be observed by local authorities and civic organizations, and all officers will in their respective limits, co-operate in making the turnout of the guard as impressive as possible. The brigadier general will issue detailed instructions to the companies in this city and Bountiful, as he may deem proper for the execution of this order.
